

M MM...LIVER CAKE

'Oat-so good' liver cake

Homemade training treats for your hound

This homemade liver cake is sure to be a hit with any hound! Chop it into very small pieces and it makes a great training treat for the fussiest of hounds. What's more it will keep up to 3 months if frozen.

Ingredients

- 500g (1lb) liver
- 500g (1lb) organic porridge oats
- 2 large free-range eggs
- 2 cloves of garlic*
- 3tbsp natural yogurt

Prep time

- Prep | 15 mins
- Cook | 35 mins
- Ready in | 50 mins
- Storage | Keep in airtight container in fridge for up to 1 week OR freeze for up to 3 months.

Instructions

01

Preheat oven to 180C (Gas Mark 4). Grease and line 30cm square (12" square) baking tin. Crush garlic.

02

Blend the liver in a food processor until smooth. Add eggs, oats, and garlic, continue to mix until mixture is well mixed.

03

When the mixture is smooth, stir in the yogurt until mixture has thick cake-like consistency.

04

Transfer to baking tin and bake 30- 40 minutes, until firm to touch and light brown in colour. Allow to cool slightly, turn out, and cut into small bite size pieces.

*Garlic is part of the Allium family & is known to be toxic to dogs in large quantities. Small quantities, such as in this recipe, should be fine. If you are worried, omit the garlic and add in some grated, smelly cheese instead..

Happy Hounds Dog Training & Behaviour is not liable if you include garlic when making this recipe.
